Top links

Tytera MD380 firmware reverse engineered

The entire radio has been reverse engineered with rewritten firmware and the beginnings of a very active development community.

Hack A Day

Winter Field Day is January 30 - 31

Winter Field Day encourages emergency operating preparedness in the winter.

Winter Field Day Association

First Iranian Ham Radio contest February 1st

The first Iranian ham contest is going to be held on February 1st, 2016 and will last for 10 days.

Alborz dx group

Getting started In QRP

There are two big reasons why radio amateurs who have no real interest in QRP should familiarize themselves with it anyway. First, it forces them to refine their operating skills, and that's helpful no matter how much juice you're sending up the coax.

Off Grid Ham

VHF Super Conference

A conference involving VHF, UHF, microwave and above frequencies.

VHF Super Conference

Some friendly NPOTA advice

If you've never left the friendly confines of your home shack before, here are some things to consider.

W2LJ

Congressman asks FCC for help with NYC repeater interference

"Amateur Radio repeaters on Long Island are rendered useless..."

ARRL

Subscribe to our email list

The "Nifty Accessories" KX3 stand

For desktop operation the short rear legs make for a laid back angle that makes the display difficult to see and the buttons awkward to operate.
Ham Radio QRP

Tips for beginning net control operators

There are no mistakes, only experience. When you've finished the net that is what you will have.
KB6NU

GlobalSET 2015 is a wrap, with lessons learned

It was estimated that 10 times more radio amateurs took part in GlobalSET 2015.
ARRL

Ham radio operator asked to take down tower

Ham plans to sue the city for harassment in regards to a radio tower he was forced to remove.
Mainely Media

Video

Maritime emergency Ham Radio recording

The occupants felt threatened that it might be a pirate, so they called for help on the Ham Radio.
W1JSB

Amateur Radio Weekly is curated by K4HCK.

View the archive | Follow us on Twitter

Thank you for reading.

73